2<sup>D</sup> SESSION

H. J. RES. 408

To designate June 11, 1995, as “D-Day Widows and Orphans National Recognition Day”.

---

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

SEPTEMBER 12, 1994

Mr. QUILLEN introduced the following joint resolution; which was referred to the Committee on Post Office and Civil Service

JOINT RESOLUTION

To designate June 11, 1995, as “D-Day Widows and Orphans National Recognition Day”.

Whereas, on June 6, 1944, American and Allied forces began their assault on the armies of Nazi Germany in Normandy, France, during World War II;

Whereas this D-Day invasion was the largest amphibious assault in the history of warfare;

Whereas over 9,000 brave American servicemen gave their lives in the D-Day campaign so that Europe might again be free; and

Whereas the noble sacrifice made by these soldiers, sailors, airmen and marines left their loved ones at home in the United States to mourn their loss: Now, therefore, be it

1       Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives
2       of the United States of America in Congress assembled,
3       That June 11, 1995, is designated as a day to honor the 4       widows, children, and other family members of American
5       servicemen who gave their lives in the D-Day invasion of 6       Normandy, and the President is authorized and requested
7       to issue a proclamation calling upon the people of the 8       United States to observe such day with appropriate pro-
9       grams, ceremonies, and activities.
